

KGB Museum / Museum of Occupations

Olivia and Kayla

Brief History

- Opened in 1899
- Conscription center
- Polish occupation
- Soviet occupation
- Nazi occupation
- KGB prison

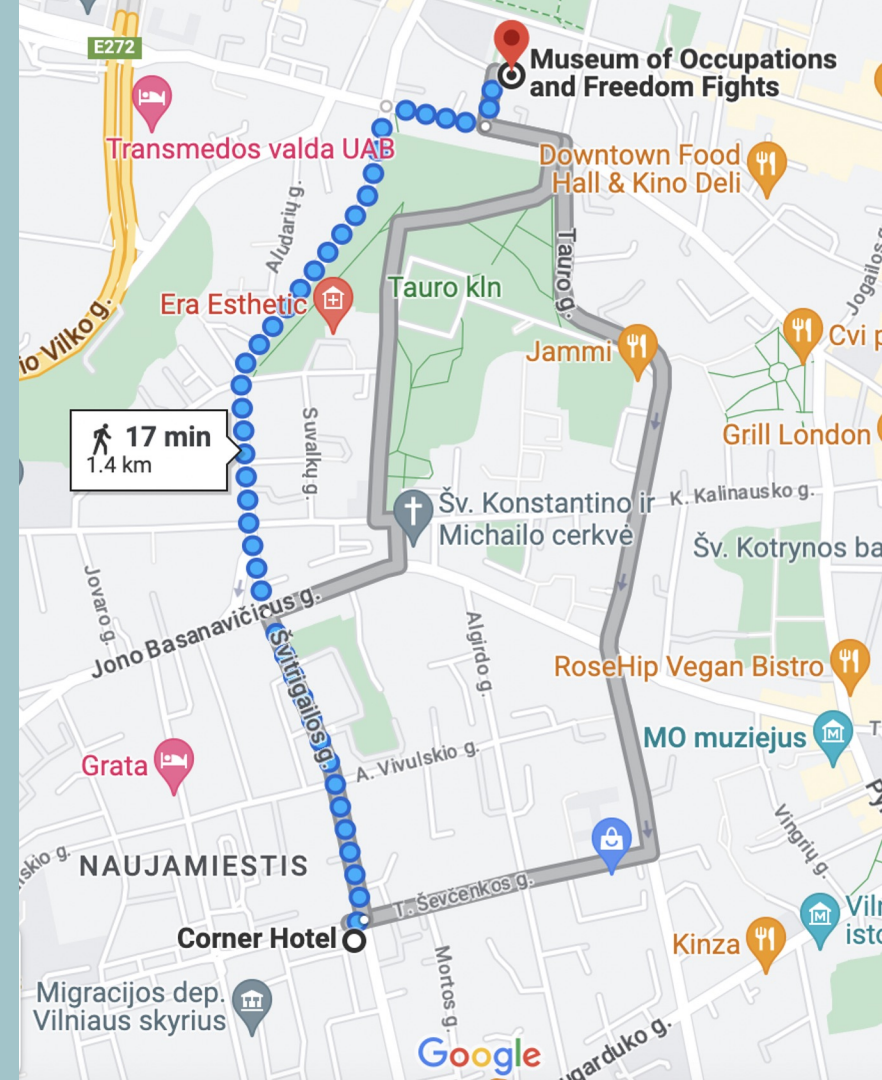

Importance and Significance

- The KGB was created in 1954 to serve as the “sword and shield of the Communist Party.”
- Assumed responsibility for arresting, imprisoning, and executing “enemies of the state,”
- This museum displays the former offices of the KGB and showcases the occupations of the KGB history to get a glimpse of why the KGB were feared by the people.
- During the Soviet Occupation, every leader depended on the KGB for information, surveillance, and control of the population.

Location & Travel

- 17 minute walk

Sources

- <http://www.genocid.lt/muziejus/en/>