

- Includes a city, mountain, lake, 2 universities, and a battlefield.

- Birthplace of Salomeja Nėris, she was a poet and a teacher who wrote folk tales alongside some possible involvement with Stalin during the soviet occupation possibly working to make propagandized literature.

Šeteniai Lithuania

Šeteniai

58414 Kedainiai District Municipality Lithuania

Clear - 45°F 10:01 PM

Directions

Save

Nearby

Send to phone

Share

Quick facts

Šeteniai is a village in the Kedainiai District Municipality, Lithuania. According to the 2011 census, the village had a population of 31 people. It is situated 13 kilometres north of Kedainiai, on the left bank of the Nevėžis River, next to the Vlainiai–Šventybrastis–Krekenava road. Wikipedia

Hotels

Akmenų dvaras 4.6 ★ $44

Gray's house 4.3 ★ 3 stars $57

Smilga 4.2 ★ 3 stars

View more hotels

Photos

Restaurants

Hotels

Things to do

Museums

Transit

Pharmacies

ATMs

- Czeslaw Milosz was one of the most famous figures in Polish literature and even won a Nobel Prize for literature in 1980.