

RASOS CEMETERY

By: Savannah Brown & Katrine Semenyaka

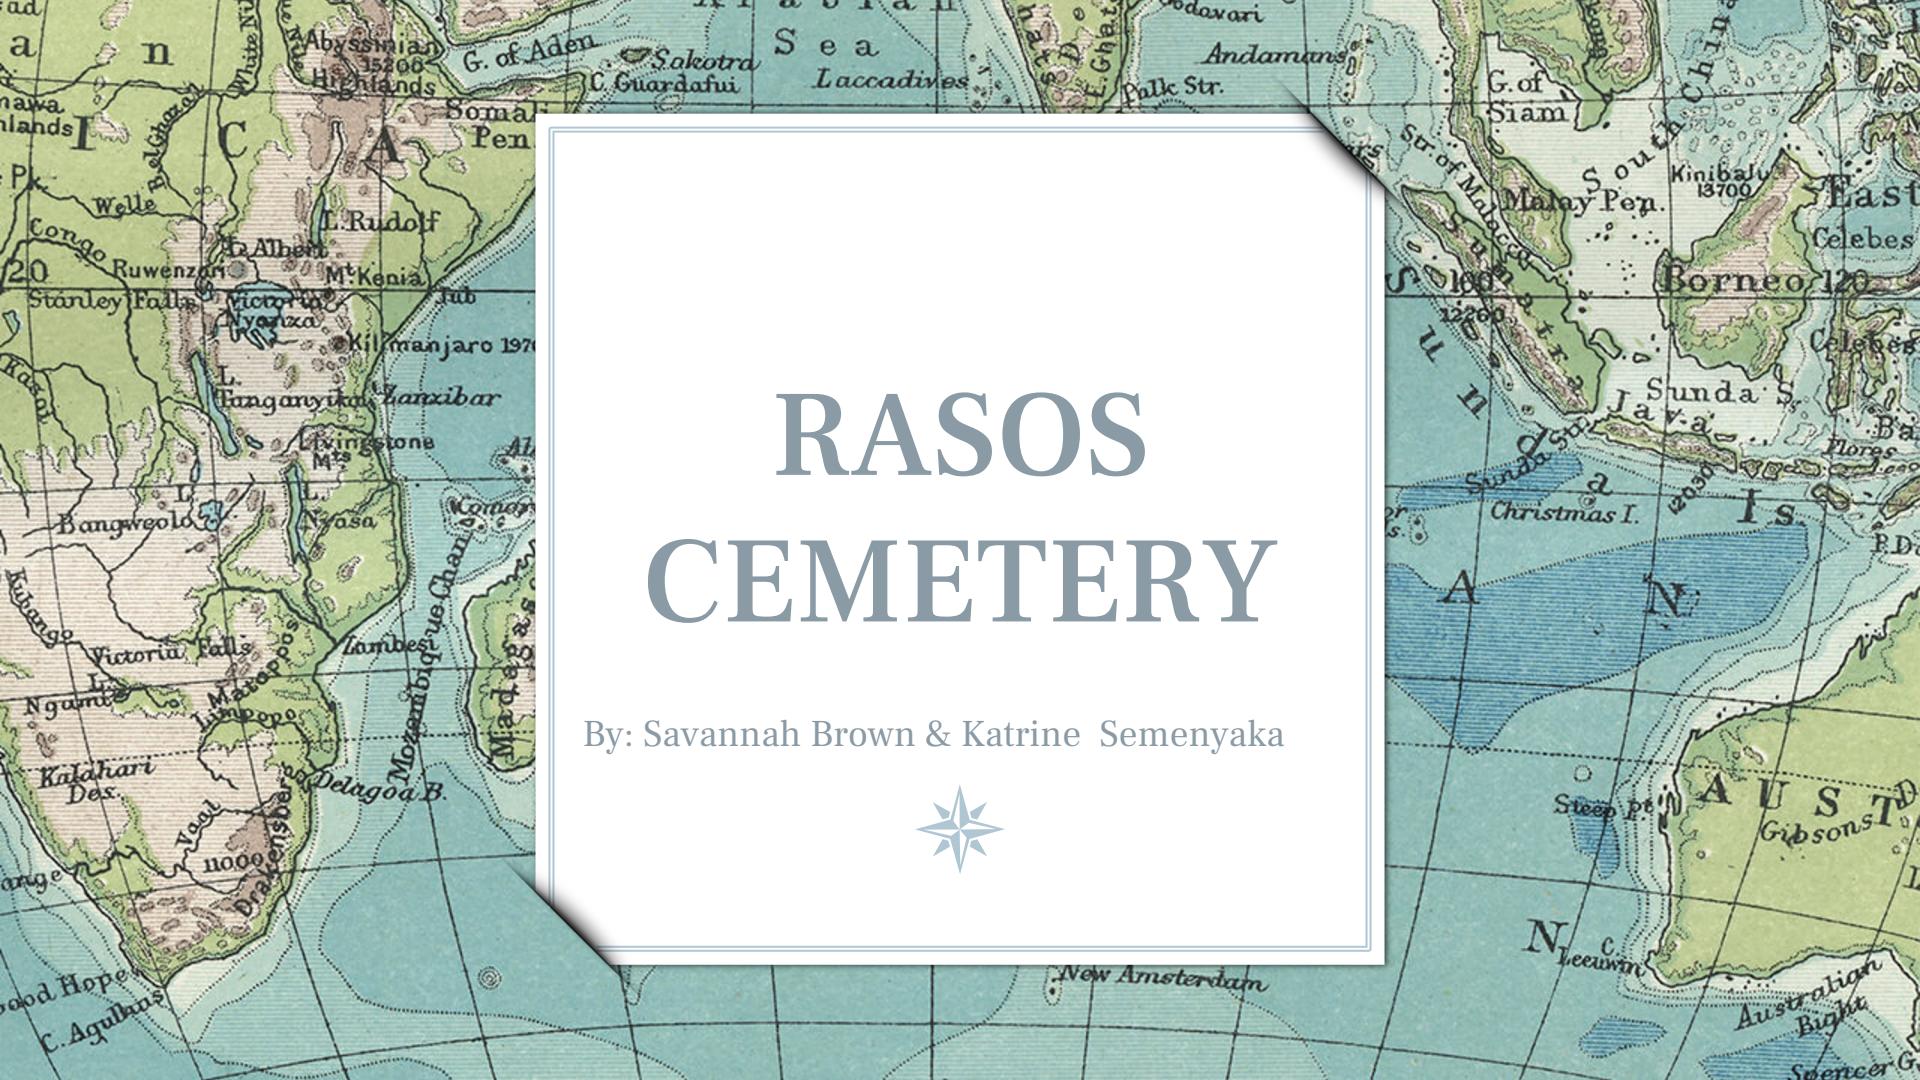

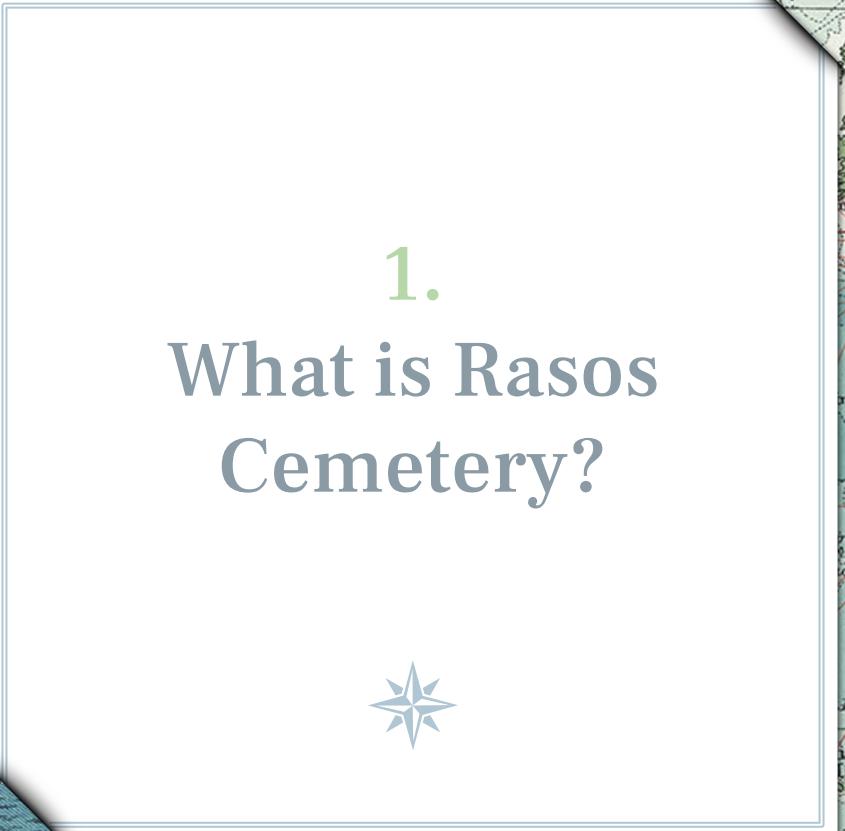

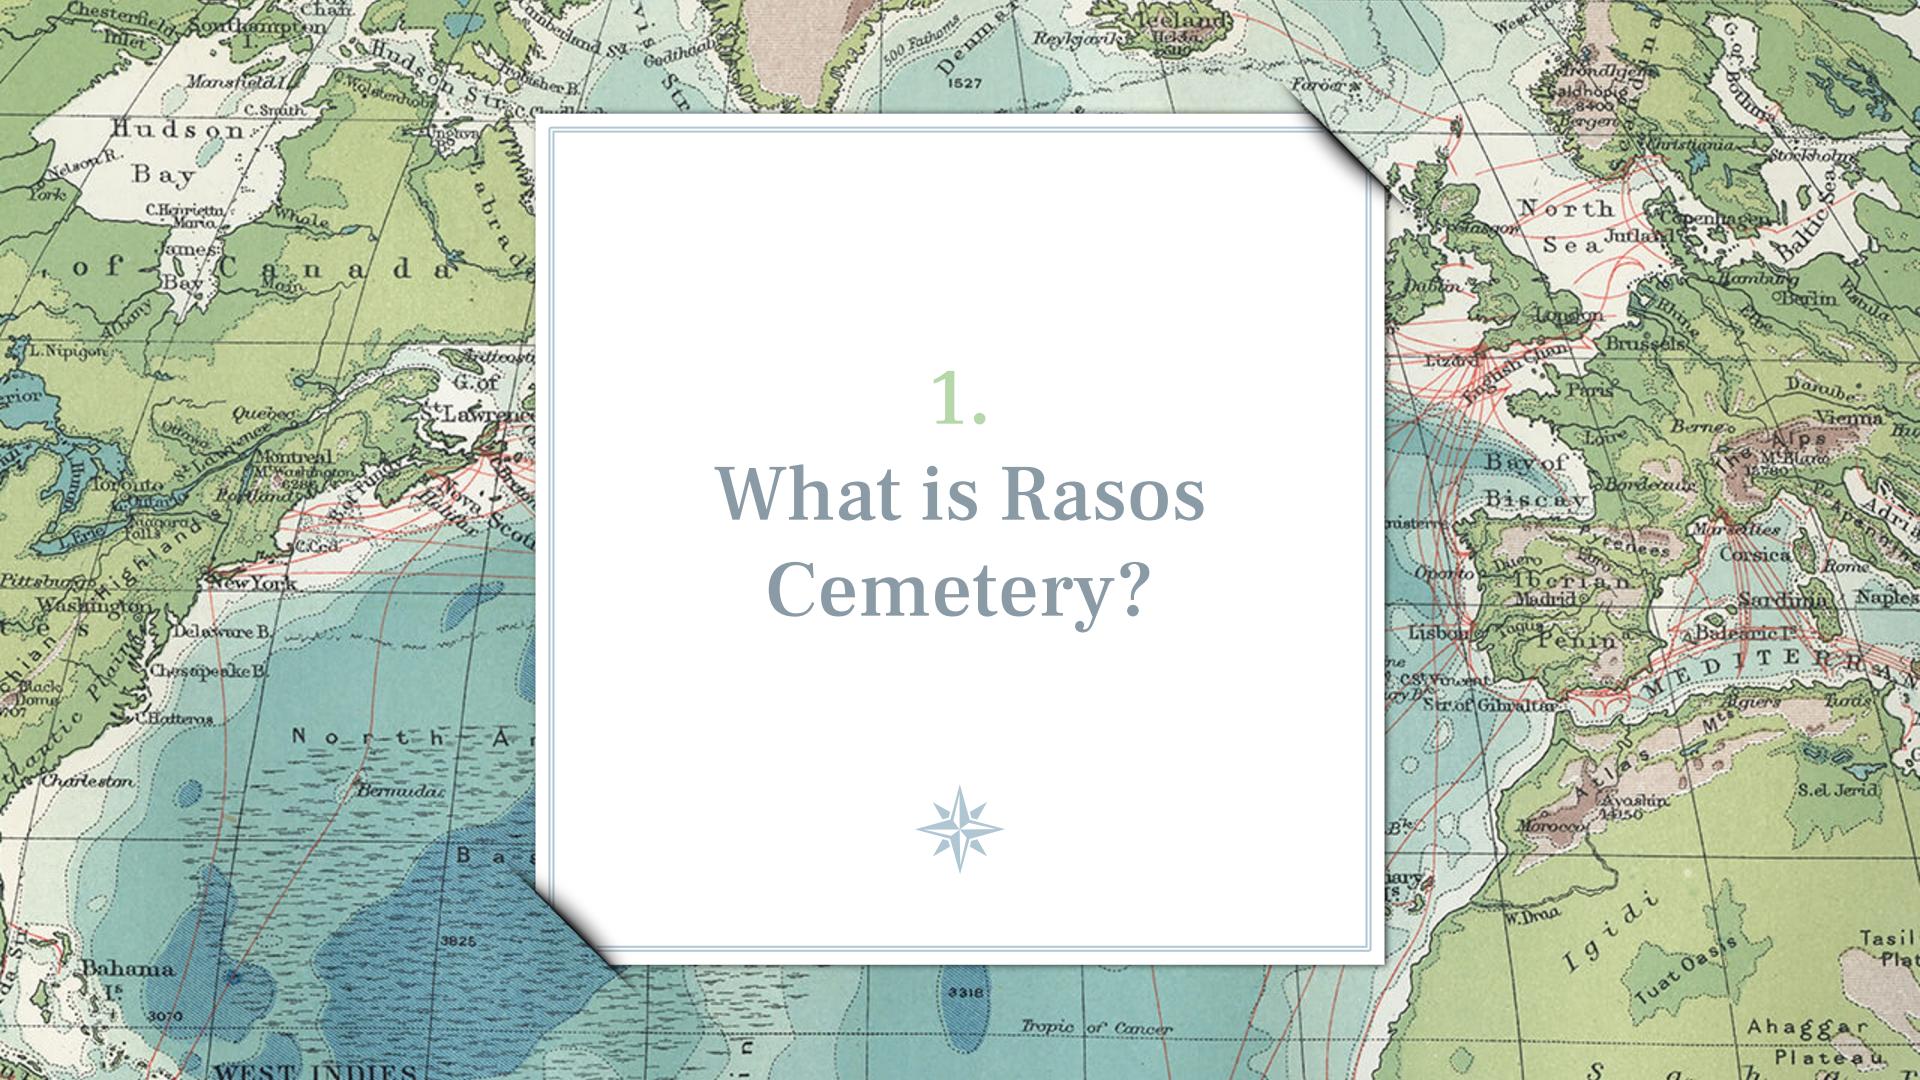

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- I. Significance of Rasos Cemetery.
- I. How to Travel to Rasos Cemetery
- I. Vilnius Old Town

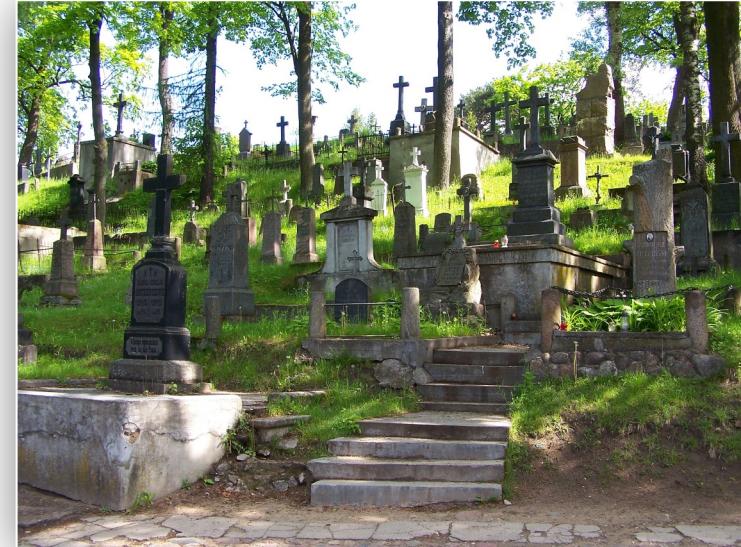

1. What is Rasos Cemetery?

WHAT IS RASOS CEMETERY?

Rasos Cemetery was founded most likely in the year 1769. There are two Rasos Cemeteries: Old Rasos and New Rasos.

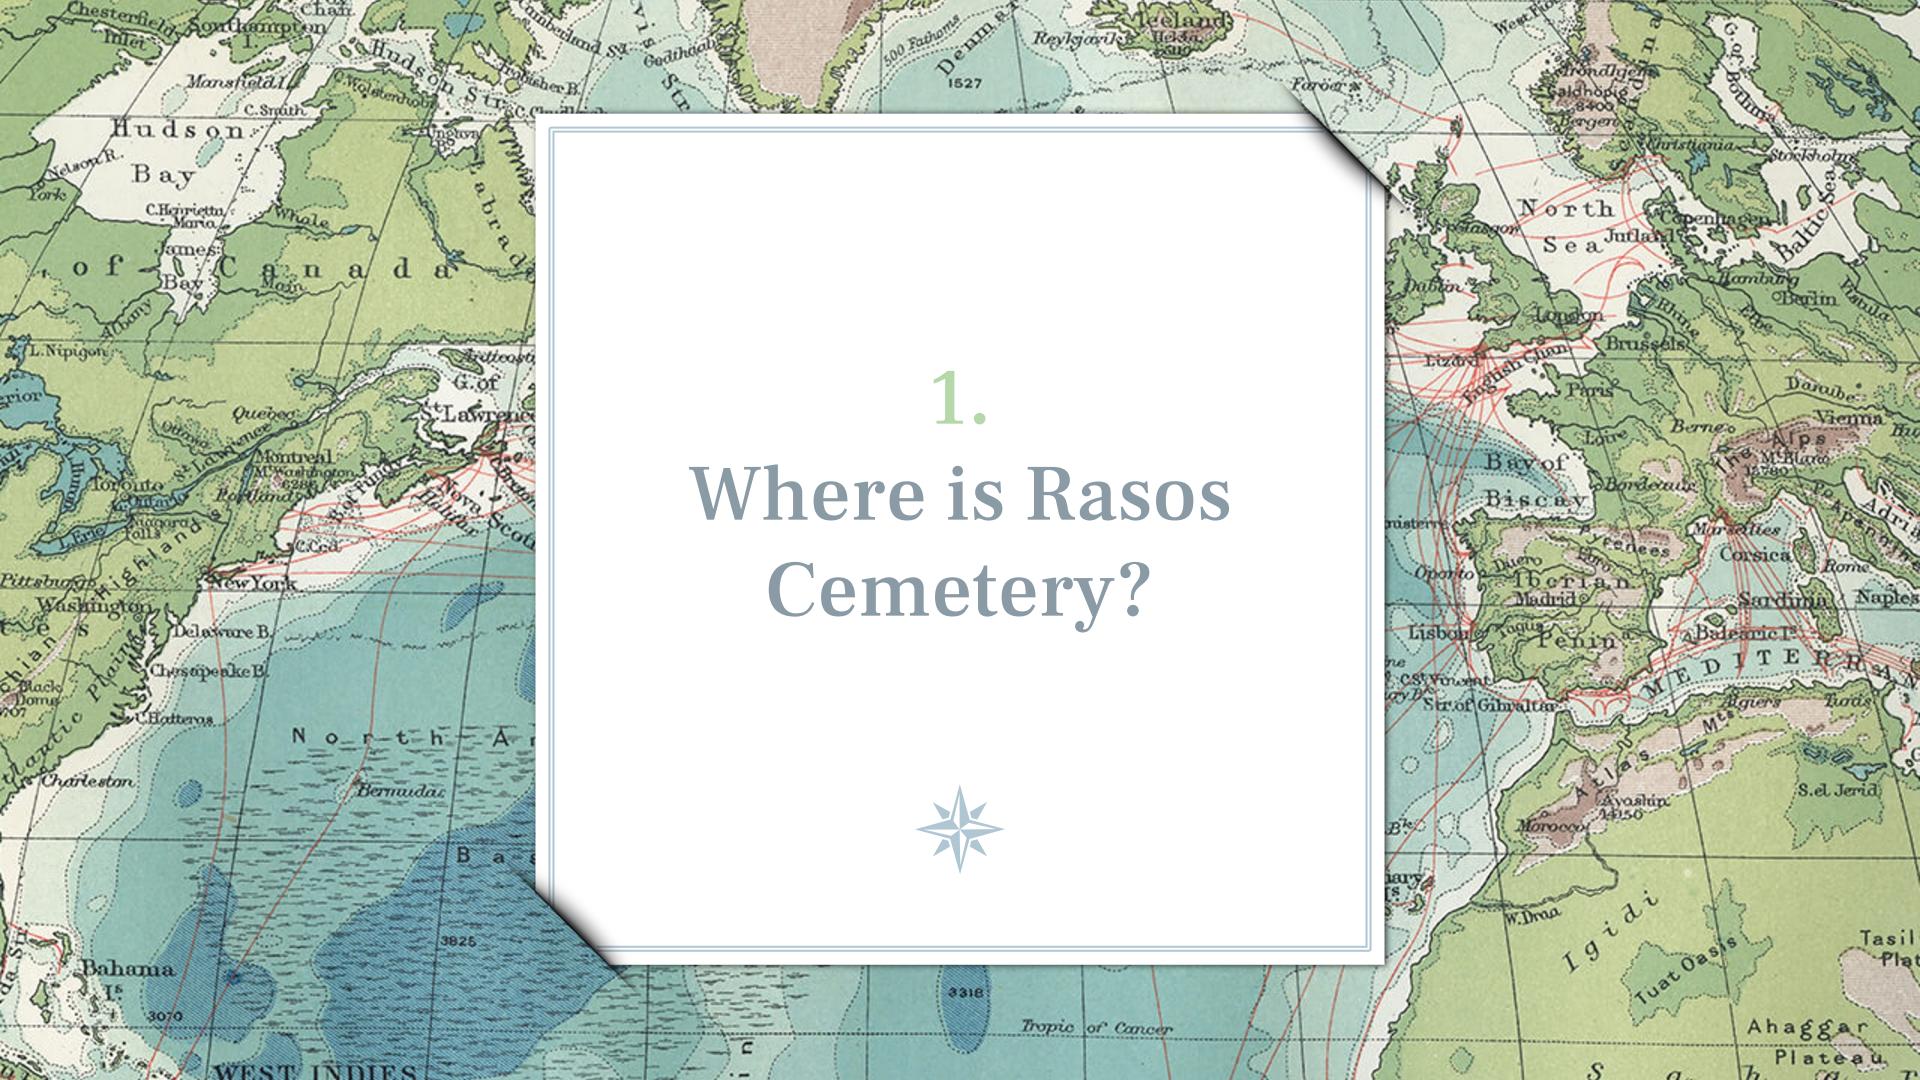

SIGNIFICANCE OF RASOS CEMETERY

Rasos Cemetery is the oldest and most important cemetery in Vilnius. It was also the first graveyard to not be located next to a church. The House of Literatai is housed in Rasos Cemetery.

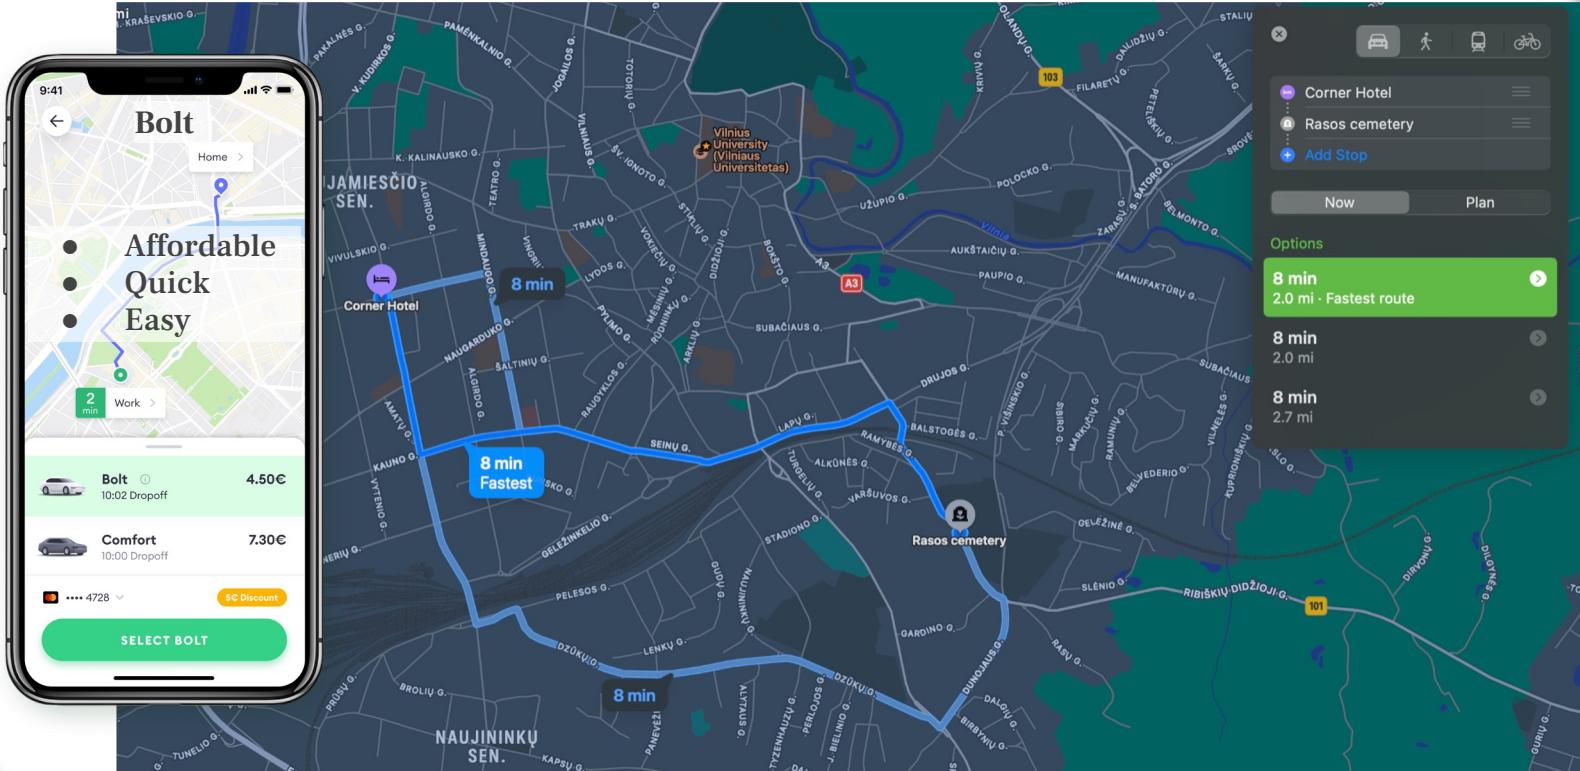

“Cemetery of Orphans” became a nickname for Rasos Cemetery after the burial of soldiers and poor citizens. Rasos Cemetery was planned to be destroyed in a build by the Soviet Union.

1. Where is Rasos Cemetery?

HOW TO TRAVEL TO RASOS CEMETERY FROM CORNER HOTEL

Vilnius Old Town

- UNESCO World Heritage site, known for its well-preserved medieval architecture and rich cultural heritage.
- Allows for past and present knowledge of those who did live there to be acknowledged
- Historical value, as well as best preserved in Northern Europe

SOURCES USED

- Rasos Cemetery - Wikipedia
- Rasų Cemetery - Go Vilnius
- Association of Significant Cemeteries in Europe - Rasos Cemetery \(Vilnius, Lithuania\)
- The Old Town of Vilnius